

STYLE

shopping | design report | trend watch | going to market

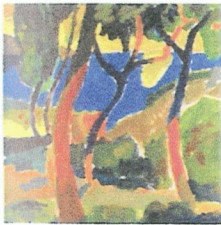

Our favorite artists—and these few examples of their art—represent only a handful of the talent that can be seen in this art-rich town.

Lindsey Rowe, Assistant Editor: "Local artist Susan Dory's paintings are full of energy, yet soothing and beautiful. I love the graphic feel of the elongated ovals." Represented by Winston Wächter Fine Art, (206) 652-5855 or winstonwachter.com.

*"CAMERO" (2007) BY SUSAN DORY; COURTESY WINSTON WÄCHTER

Giselle Smith, Editor: "I love the bright colors and graphic nature of Richard Morhous' work. I see new things each time I look at one of his paintings." Represented by Lisa Harris Gallery, (206) 443-3315 or lisaharrisgallery.com.

*"BAY" (2007) BY RICHARD MORHOUS; COURTESY LISA HARRIS GALLERY

Shawn Williams, Art Director: "Our own Jana Rekosh (SH&L associate art director) is one of my favorite Seattle artists. I love the layers and layers of graphic elements and texture." Available through Jana Rekosh, jana@rekosh.com.

*"FALL ETUDE" BY JANA REKOSH

COURTESY DOUG KEYES AND G. GIBSON GALLERY

Virginia Bunker, Market Editor: "There are many different ways to experience art, but for me, the thing that's most important is the way a work makes me feel. What amazes me about this multiple exposure pigment print, 'Financial District, New York' by Seattle photographer Doug Keyes, is how it captures the energy, color and vibrancy of downtown Manhattan. I'm transported to a different time and place without leaving the room." Represented by G. Gibson Gallery, (206) 587-4033 or ggibsongallery.com.

See more of our favorite artists online at SeattleHomesMag.com.