Models blending into the interior

19-07-2016 INSPIRATION By: Nadja Geskus 531

This particular series is inspired by IKEA furniture. And although it almost seems impossible made with some images, this series without the use of Photoshop. The models are styled so that they blend into the interior in a very special way.

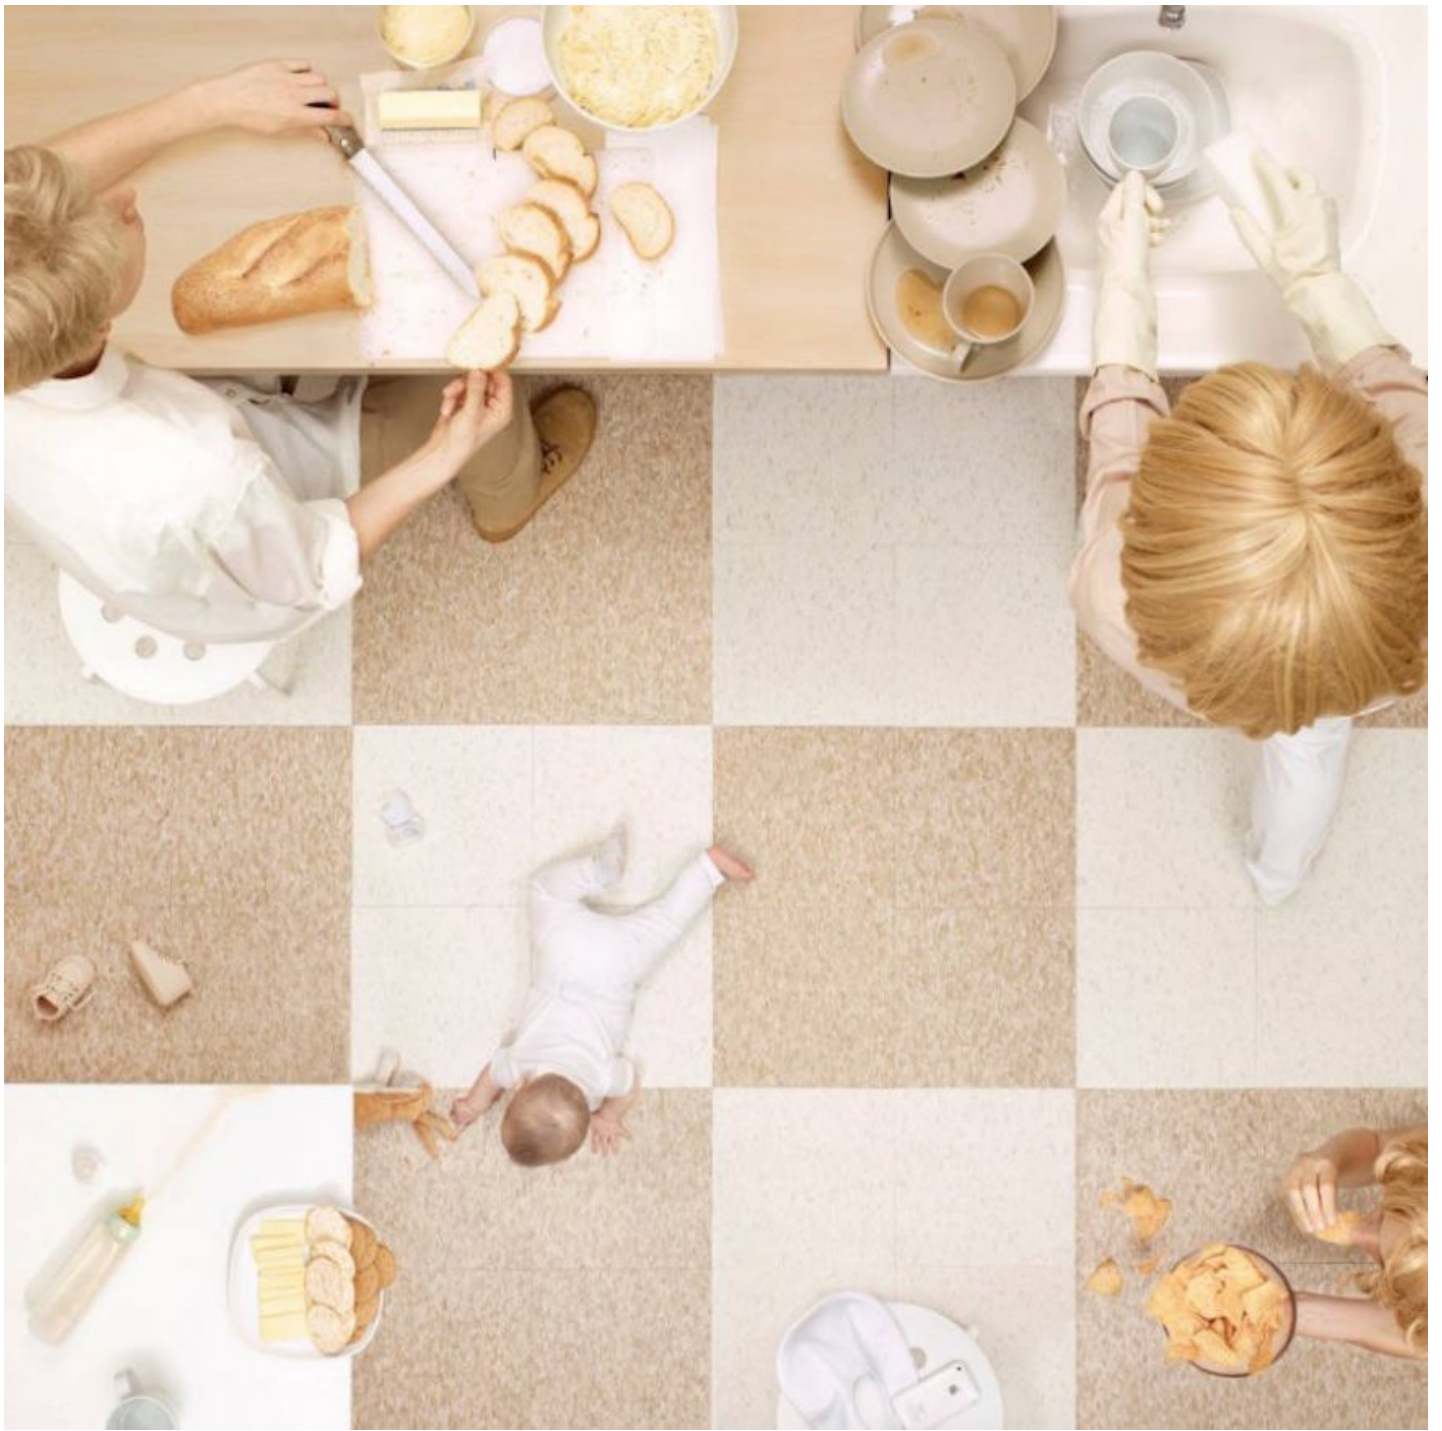

Margeaux Walter

The artist who made these images Margeaux Walter. She was born in Seattle and currently lives in New York. Some of her recent exhibitions include solotentoonstellingen the Nohra Haime Gallery and Winston Wachter Fine Art in New York and groepstentoonstellingen in Pentimenti Gallery in Philadelphia, the Griffin Museum in Boston, the Tacoma Art Museum and the Delaware Center for Contemporary Arts. In 2009, the Magenta Foundation has chosen her as a top emerging photographer in the United States; she was awarded Juror's Choice at the Butler Institute of American Art National Midyear exhibition and she was commissioned to create a large-scale outdoor installation for the Art Omi Fields Sculpture Park in Ghent, NY. Her work has been featured in include The New York Times, New York Post, Seattle Times, Boston Globe and Scene Magazine.

blending

Her series Sign of Language represents the presence of IKEA meubels in our interiors. Walter created beautiful creations, in which the models completely blending into the interior. By means of clothing with the same color codes, and patterns, this makes a special entity. The whole series is produced without the use of Photoshop.
